	It is stated in the petitioner that there is a fear in the mind of the petitioners that they would not receive a fair and unprejudiced trial as they are being threatened, abused, harassed and deterred from appearing in the criminal proceedings pending against them in the Janjgir Court. It is also stated that the petitioner No. 2, mother-in-law of the complainant is an old lady and she is suffering from hypertension with menopausal syndrome and she is under regular treatment. A medical certificate issued by Dr. S.N. ~~Nande,~~ Dube Bilaspur to this effect has been annexed along with this petition. There is no supporting documents available along with the petition to justify the apprehension of the petitioners that they shall not be getting fair opportunity if criminal case continues in the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Janjgir, therefore, no case for transfer of the matter to another Criminal Court is made out. In the result, the petition being devoid of substance is hereby dismissed. Sd/- Dhirendra Mishra Judge
